Randall & Theresa Richardson

Maritius
Reunion
Seychelles

Randall and Theresa Richardson attended Conquerors Bible College where he graduated in 1974. They subsequently pastored in Johnson City, Illinois, for a short time and ministered in Salem, Illinois, before taking a position as associate pastor in Princeton, Kentucky. In 1978 they began missionary service in the nation of Madagascar, where they served as leader of the southern districts and as Bible school director until 1994. Their field then changed to Mauritius, Seychelles and Reunion in order to establish and oversee the works of these three nations. The Richardsons participated in the opening of Reunion and Seychelles to the Gospel and establishment of the church in those nations, while also overseeing and strengthening the existing church in Mauritius.
